

THE COLONEL'S CORNER

Leave No One Behind

The concept of the Latin phrase nemo resideo, or "leave no one behind," is almost as old as warfare itself. Greek mythology portrayed heroes who rescued those captured by enemies. Similar language can be found in the Soldier's Creed -- "I will never leave a fallen comrade" -- as well as the Airman's Creed -- "I will never leave an Airman behind". This is a core value that Veterans carry with them forever even if they do not realize it, and it comes out in other ways.

At Salute, homeless veterans are our fallen comrades, and that core value is evident in every veteran we hire. When I tell this story, I get choked up with pride because it is a living example of our values and happened when our team instinctively did what was right without pausing or asking for higher HQ support.
